Johnston, 1303 Beech Ave., and their daughter, Mrs. John Mascola and Sharon, 1323 Amapola returned last week from a month's motor trip through Indiana, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania. During their visit with Mrs. Johnston's mother, Mrs. Carrie Brinker, at Brookville, Pa., they attended a family reunion celebrating Mrs. Brinker's 84th birthday.

Great Out-Doors Shared By 165 Camp Fire Girls

Sharing the treasures of their annual day camp in Torrance Park, 165 Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds and Horizon Club girls of the Harbor District of the Los Angeles Camp Fire Girls Council have had three weeks of fun closing Thursday with an all camp program. Each of the 11 units of girls presented some of their favorite activities: crafts, songs, and dramatics to their fellow day camp girls.

Planning programs around the age levels on a progression basis were conducted by the girls under the supervision of a staff of volunteer leaders, parents and friends. Director of the camp was Cynthia H. Keyes, Harbor District Executive for the Los Angeles Council. Adults who served as counselors include: Mrs. O. D. Barnard, Mrs. I. J. Brenden, Mrs. Jack Browne, Mrs. Victor Butler, Mrs. H. V. DeMott, Mrs. Alfred Fink, Mrs. J. R. Frazer, Mrs. V. L. Hansen, Mrs. Richard Harthorn, Mrs. W. A. Herzog, Mrs. E. H. Huegli, Mrs. Charles Huey, Mrs. Jack Imbagnazo, Mrs. J. G. Lovett, Evelyn McDade, Mrs. Leonard McDade, Mrs. N. W. Michelson, Mrs. John Patterson, Mrs. Douglas Robertson, Mrs. Lloyd Sanders, Mrs. Robert Shell, Mrs. J. L. Stevenson, Mrs. J. M. Vickers, Mrs. Charles B. Wasson, Mrs. M. G. Wells, and Mrs. John Warner.

Assisting the Blue Birds with their program were Horizon Club girls, senior members of Camp Fire. Their program also included advanced cooking and planning as well as caring for pre-school children of the staff members.

As the girls enjoyed the fun of working together in the outdoors, they were participating in one phase of the Camp Fire program as they earned many honors and completed requirements for their various ranks. For a number of the girls it was the fourth season of Camp Fire day camping in Torrance Park, and plans have already begun for their fifth season next summer.

Doll Fashions to Highlight Lovely Mother-Daughter Tea

Garden flowers and crepe paper streamers in the soft pastel shades will festoon the Civic Auditorium for the second annual Mother and Daughter tea and doll fashion show to be held Friday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock.

Sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department with representatives from each park and playground acting as the hostesses, the gala affair will have all the glamour and color of the "big time" with tea tables artistically arranged to circle the center of the hall. Floral arrangements will be used on each table and a five-foot, decorated cradle placed at the end of the runway will serve as a center for the doll display.

Judging of dolls will be held at 2 p.m. The categories will be the oldest doll, foreign doll, best home-made, and clothes, twin dolls, most comical, funniest, rarest, largest, smallest, best displayed as well as decorated buggies. Included in last year's display were dolls as old as 123 years and dolls from Japan, Holland, Turkey and other countries. Ribbons and other prizes will be awarded.

Spotlighting the program will be a mother, daughter and doll fashion show with the participants displaying the latest in fashions which will include matching outfits including the dolls.

With the center of the hall as a stage, a talent show will

Theatre Set Stages Gala 'Fiesta' Party

Brightly colored serapes, shawls, multi-colored wax candles and colored spotlights created a festive air for the barbecue supper staged by the Accent Theatre group at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F.
